1. Developments

a. Most of the meetings with the AECASSOWARIES during the reporting period were of a routine nature, producing very little or no operational material, or were of an administrative type confined to servicing letter drops, paying safehouse rent and the like. It will be noted in Attachment B that as of 1 July 1958 AECASSOWARY/6 has been taken off salary. He continues his same role with us without pay, having accepted the pay cut without question when it was explained to him that the Project carrying him was found to be unproductive, and was therefore cancelled.

b. On his return from a trip to Brussels in late September 1958, AECASSOWARY/3 reported having learned from a Soviet Ukrainian visitor to the fair from Lvov that this visitor (name unknown) had been instructed by some Basilian fathers in Lvov to contact either Basilian fathers fnu MISKIV (No DOB or POB available) and Ireneus NAZARKO (No DOB or POB available) of Rome or Volodymyr GAVLICH (DOB: 29 October 1913; POB: Smykove, West Ukraine) of Vienna. This visitor had failed to make this contact in Brussels but since his touring group expected to visit Rome in late September 1958, he hoped to accomplish his task then. Per MUNI 9967, we are investigating this through GAVLICH.

Attachment B to EGMA 37706

OPERATIONAL MATTERS AND COMMENTS:

1. Having returned to Munich on 11 July from his trip to Spain, Paris and Brussels with AECASSOWARY 2, AECASSOWARY 6 called [ ] on 16 July to announce his return. [ ] met him shortly after the call was made.

2. The trip AECASSOWARY 6 made had no operational significance for AECASSOWARY 6 since he merely served as a companion and chauffeur for AECASSOWARY 2 who conducted all the business which consisted of speaking with Ukrainians about Emigre politics and Brussels Fair action. In view of this, all AECASSOWARY 6 had to say about his trip was confined to the mechanics of it, the weather, driving conditions, his impressions of the places visited, etc. He said AECASSOWARY 2 had communicated with AECASSOWARY 17 while enroute, and somewhere along the line received word that AECASSOWARY 27 would arrive in Europe to take over the handling of Fair action from AECASSOWARY 2. AECASSOWARY 2, by the way, departed for PEPRIME on 10 July. AECASSOWARY 6 said that in Madrid he and AECASSOWARY 2 happened to run into several KUBARK staffers whom they knew from past operational activity. These staffers were [ ] and [ ]. It seems that a local Ukrainian

"introduced" AECASSOWARY 2 and 6 to one of his American-Ukrainian friends [ ]. After pretending to be complete strangers in the presence of this Ukrainian, AECASSOWARY 2 and 6 later got together with [ ] for a private reunion. [ ] who also knew the AECASSOWARIES since about 1951, was brought into the act by [ ]. The get-together seemed to be enjoyed by all.

3. When paying AECASSOWARY 6's June salary, [ ] informed him that as of 1 July 1958 he would no longer be paid a salary by us. (See EGMA-35531, 3 July 1958). In telling him this sad news, [ ] went on to explain that at the end of FY 58 (30 June) the project, after being examined by headquarters and found to be unproductive, was cancelled. AECASSOWARY 6 accepted this news very realistically and said that he understood the problem. He said that this would have no effect on his relationship with us or in his future work, and said that he is always ready to do whatever he can for us, and is available as usual. [ ] pointed out to him that his escrow account contains over 10,000 DM, which he can draw on whenever he wants, and it is suspected that this fact helped eliminate any unhappiness on the part of AECASSOWARY 6 when [ ] told him of the salary cut. [ ] suggested that AECASSOWARY 6 think about investing his escrow money. He said he would do this, but in the meantime, preferred that it be kept with us.

4. The next meeting with AECASSOWARY 6 is to be arranged by phone.

OPERATIONAL MATTERS AND COMMENTS NO. 59

1. Aside from giving AECASSOWARY-6 his new PX and Coffee ration cards, ~~asked~~ asked him at this meeting to check several mailing addresses, which were set up through him and AECASSOWARY-3 some time ago, in order to determine their current status. (see DIR-32099). He said he would do this immediately and would let Gallo know the results of his inquiry.
2. AECASSOWARY-6 had nothing of operational significance to report.
3. The next meeting with AECASSOWARY-6 will be arranged via phone call.

Attachment D to EGMA 37706

OPERATIONAL MATTERS AND COMMENTS:

1. SOB had mailed several letters to two letter drops serviced by AECASSOWARY 6, and to find out the results of this test, [ ] met AECASSOWARY 6. He reported that one of the two drops had received a letter mailed to him (the first of two letters), while the second drop had not reported the receipt of a letter. (Note: An interesting development occurred with respect to the L. FUTRA address serviced by AECASSOWARY 6. The second letter sent to this address, inadvertently addressed to Ludwig instead of Lyubomyr FUTRA, had been intercepted by CIS and revealed that before the letter was passed on by the post office, the address on the envelope had been corrected to read FUTORSKYY, and the street address crossed out and a post office box substituted in its place. This is the letter which was apparently not received by FUTORSKYY. [ ] asked AECASSOWARY 6 (without revealing what showed up in the copy of CIS report) whether FUTORSKYY had a post office box, and he said to his knowledge FUTORSKYY did not have a PO box. The question arises as to whether by coincidence there is a Ludwig FUTORSKYY who rents a post office box but who does not live at the address used by Lyubomyr FUTORSKYY; or has FUTORSKYY, for some unknown reason, rented a post office box which he chose to keep secret. To get to the bottom of this enigma, SOB intends to check the post office box in question, and if it turns out that this is Lyubomyr FUTORSKYY's box, then perhaps he will be questioned about it. Actually, we do not think it too far fetched to imagine that FUTORSKYY could have been instructed by some other service, once he reported being used as a letter drop, to rent a post office box to which the mail would be channeled, thus circumventing mail interception at this end of the line.) Regarding the test on the second address (LYLYK), AECASSOWARY 6 said that he and AECASSOWARY 3 both checked this several times since the test letter was sent there but that no letters were received.
2. The above matter was discussed with SOB who advised [ ] that another test letter would be sent to the LYLYK address, and after checking the post office box mentioned above, another letter will be mailed to FUTRA if it turns out that he has no post office box.
3. The next meeting with AECASSOWARY 6 will be on 8 August when [ ] will visit him for the purpose of checking on several Ukrainians of interest to him. At this time too, [ ] will inquire again about the LYLYK address as it is possible that the test letter was received by now.

OPERATIONAL MATTERS AND COMMENTS

1. This was a routine visit with AECASSOWARY 6. AECASSOWARY 3 was out of town, in Brussels, where he is attending some religious function sponsored by the Vatican. Most of the meeting was devoted to talking about non-operational matters; however, AECASSOWARY 6 did have the following items of interest to report:

a) [ ] married ~~Hrihoriy~~ DRABAT and left for England with him where they will reside.

b) AECASSOWARY 27 informed AECASSOWARY 6 that he expects to depart for PBPRIME on or about 23 September 1958.

the only to something with which to be sure
c) During ~~Dr.~~ Vasyl MARKUS's visit to Munich in late August 1958, he informed AECASSOWARY 6 and others that he plans to emigrate to the United States in the near future. He claims his reason for leaving Paris is to marry his fiancée who already lives in America. It should be noted that shortly after the end of World War II, about 1946 or 47 to be exact, the Bandera people had accused MARKUS of being dispatched to the West by the Soviets. This charge was never substantiated by any concrete evidence. The AECASSOWARY people apparently did not share this Bandera view, for MARKUS has had their confidence at all times.

2. AECASSOWARY 6 gave [ ] a copy of PROLOG's Digest of the Soviet Ukrainian Press (in English) which was sent to him by AECASSOWARY 2. [ ] asked AECASSOWARY 6 to lend him any other back copies of the Digest which might be found at the AECASSOWARY I newspaper office. This he said he would do.

3. The next meeting is to be arranged as required.

OPERATIONAL MATTERS AND COMMENTS

1. AECASSOWARY 3 had been to Lourdes and Brussels the past several weeks on church business, and when he returned to Munich he called us to let us know he was back. A meeting was arranged with him for 30 September.

2. AECASSOWARY 3 said he saw AECASSOWARY 27 on the eve of the latter's departure for PEPRIME on 23 September. The only significant thing he had to report here was that AECASSOWARY 27 failed to hold the press conference as he originally had planned. (See DIR-38326.)

3. AECASSOWARY 3 said that while he was in Brussels he and several of his church colleagues chanced to meet and speak with several Ukrainians visiting the Fair from the Soviet Union. One of these Ukrainians, unidentified by name, was a young teacher from Lvov who apparently was a teacher in an orphanage which was either supported by or was connected in some way with local basilian fathers. Having identified AECASSOWARY 3 to be connected with the church, this teacher revealed that some of his basilian friends in Lvov had instructed him to seek out and pass some information to one of three basilian fathers in the west, whom he identified to be fnu MISKIV and Ireneus NAZARKO of Rome, and Volodymyr GAVLICH of Vienna. This teacher refused to reveal more information than this about this matter; however, he did say that he and the group he was travelling with expected to visit Rome during the latter part of September and first week of October, and that he would probably look for MISKOV, et. al. when in Rome.

4. Other than the above information, AECASSOWARY 3 had nothing further of an operational nature to report. The rest of the meeting was spent talking about the fair.

5. Comment: An attempt will be made to find out through GAVLICH (has contact with him) whether the Ukrainian mentioned in paragraph 3 succeeded in contacting him or the other two basilian fathers in Rome, the nature of his mission, etc.
